Q Station sizzles with summer specials Christmas Day, Boxing Day & New Years Eve

The Boilerhouse restaurant

Sydney to Hobart Yacht Race

View of Sydney Harbour

Sydney and its Harbour are at their finest during the summer months and Manly's Q Station combines not only the best harbour views with stunning al fresco, a-la-carte dining and lawn picnics, but also four-star accommodation within the glorious oasis of national parkland.

Whether cheering on the start of the Sydney to Hobart Yacht Race on Boxing Day, spending Christmas Day enjoying a sumptuous four-course or buffet feast with family and friends, or counting down to Sydney's renowned New Years Eve fireworks from the grand ballroom, Q Station is a relaxing, rejuvenating and surprising destination this summer.

Upcoming summer events at Q Station include:

Christmas Day

- Succulent four-course buffet carvery with premium drinks in the Governor Bourke Room

Sydney to Hobart Yacht Race Picnic (Boxing Day)

The perfect vantage point for watching the start of the Sydney to Hobart Yacht Race on Boxing Day. Bring your own picnic hamper and relax with friends and family while soaking up the wonderful atmosphere.

New Years Eve

- Doctor and Nurses Ball: Fancy dress four-course meal including drinks, canapés and platters.
New ticket price released - now only $179 – a discount of up to 30% off!
- New Year's Eve Degustation Dinner: Five-course degustation menu with sparkly upon arrival and at midnight

Located just 30 minutes from Sydney's CBD, Q Station is located in the natural setting of Sydney Harbour National Park. The former Quarantine Station (1830-1984) has been beautifully restored as a unique and culturally significant hotel and has sweeping views of Sydney Harbour. Q Station offers accommodation as well as a Visitor Centre on Quarantine Wharf; the Boilerhouse Restaurant situated close to the beach; interactive tours and school education programs.
