“Gravestones are a familiar sight at North Head with over 572 bodies buried here; the final resting place of many who suffered arduous journeys to Australia, on ships plagued by infectious disease. One hundred and fifty years of misfortune and untimely deaths have left behind many stories of pain, loss and suffering and the accompanying restless spirits which haunt the site today. Featured on TV shows including “Ghost hunters International” and the supernatural horror movie “The Quarantine Hauntings”, Sydney’s Quarantine Station on North Head is one of Australia’s most haunted sites.
